

Delayed Unpacking Of Material, Supplies And Merchandise

Where consignments/packages of raw materials, supplies and/or merchandise are not opened for inspection on arrival at the Insured's store and/or premises, any concealed damage in transit occasioned by any cause (not herein excepted) which shall come to light when the consignments/packages are unpacked shall be damage recoverable under the Policy.

Provided always that:

- i. The damage shall be discovered not later than 60 (sixty) after receipt of the consignments/packages by the Insured.
- ii. Consignments/packages bearing visible signs of damage at the time of their arrival shall be inspected as soon as practicable, an appropriate claim shall be made against the carriers and the Insured shall forward copies of such claims and any replies received from carriers to the Insurer(s) as soon as practicable,
- iii. And in respect of Section 1 only the liability of the Insurer shall be subject to the sub-limit stated in the Schedule of the Policy against "Delayed Unpacking of Materials, Supplies or Merchandise"
