

Brand Clause
---------------------

In the event of loss or damage to the property insured under this policy, it is understood and agreed that any branded goods and/or merchandise shall not be disposed of by sale without the consent of the insured. In the event of the insured not consenting to such sale the salvage value as agreed should be taken into account in the settlement of loss.