

Workmen's Clause

Workmen are allowed in and about any of the described premises for the purpose of making new erections or alteration, repair, decoration, plant installation, general maintenance and the like without prejudice to the terms and conditions of the Policy.