

| |
|----------------------------------|
| Defective Sanitary Clause |
|----------------------------------|

Loss as insured by the Policy resulting from interruption of or on interference with the Business directly or indirectly arising from:

- (a) closure or evacuation of the whole part of the premises by order of a competent Public Authority consequence upon :
 - (i) human infectious or contagious disease occurring at the Premises;
 - (ii) vermin or pests or defects in the drains or other sanitary arrangements at the Premises;
 - (iii) the outbreak of a noticeable human infectious or contagious disease occurring in the Premises;
 - (iv) murder or suicide occurring in or at the Premises;

Shall be deemed to be loss resulting from Damage to property used by the Insured at the Premises for the purpose of the Business.