

Structural Alterations Clause

Subject to article 3 (three) under the conditions of the within policy, it is hereby understood that structural alteration and extension of the buildings mentioned in this policy is allowed, as are the erection of the new buildings, installation, reinstallation, replacement of machines, tools implements, piping or other installation required for the process carried on, parts of installation and objects as well as to move all these within the premises.

In case of removal or demolition of an Insured object this insurance will cover the new items