

Foundation Clause
--------------------------

It is hereby agreed that the foundation; electrical or water supply installations or drainage systems which prove to be unusable following insured damage at the Premises shall be considered part of the property damaged by the insured perils.