

Alteration Clause

Notwithstanding anything contained in the printed conditions of the Policy to the contrary, it is noted and agreed that this Insurance shall not be prejudiced in the event of any alterations being made to the property insured whereby the risk of damage is increased, provided that notice of such alterations be given to the Insurer within thirty (30) days of the commencement of such alterations and additional premium paid, if required from the date of such alterations.