

Sistership's Clause
----------------------------

Should any motor vehicle insured by this Policy be damaged or destroyed in a collision with another motor vehicle owned wholly or in part by the insured and insured by this or any other motor vehicle policy issued by the Company then the Insured shall have the same rights within the terms and limits of this Policy as the Insured would have were the other motor vehicle the property of a person or persons other than the Insured.