| Concealed Damage Clause |
|--------------------------------|

1. Any loss of or damage to the goods hereby insured which cannot be found from the external appearance of the original package shall be reported to this company's agents for survey as soon as it is found upon unpacking the package but not later than 90 days after discharge of the goods from the overseas vessel at the port of destination named in this policy.

In no case shall this company be liable to pay any loss or damage reported to this company's agent after the expiry of the said days nor any loss or damage occurring after expiry of the cover under this policy.

2. In case of non delivery of entire package or original outer packing being found broken at the time of the delivery of the goods to the consignee's or customer's warehouse, the Insured should take steps against responsible carriers or baileys in accordance with the important clause incorporated in this policy. Further, in the case of latter damage, the Insured should immediately give notice to this company's agents for survey of the contents of the broken packages.
