

Automobile Clause

The housing of Automobiles is allowed, and it is warranted that no Inflammable Spirit intended for fuel in connection therewith be at any time in the portion of the building under the control of the Insured, other than that contained in the reservoirs of such Automobiles or in approved underground storage systems or in sealed metal containers