

Locks And Keys Clause

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Policy to the contrary, if as a consequence of any event giving rise to a claim hereunder, the master keys are stolen, or if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the master keys may have been duplicated, the Insurer(s) will indemnify the Insured in respect of the cost of replacing locks and/or keys, provided that the total liability of the Insurer(s) during any one Period of Insurance for all such costs is limited to 10% of the Total Sum Insured.
