

Errors And Omission Clause

The Insured shall not be prejudiced by an unintentional and / or inadvertent omissions, errors, incorrect valuation or incorrect description of the interest, risks or provided notice is given to the Company as soon as practicable upon discovery such errors or omissions and subject to the Insured paying addition premium arising there from.