

Accumulated Stocks Clause

Basically this clause states that where an Insured depletes buffer stocks in order to maintain sales thereby avoiding or reducing a loss of gross profit the policy will pay a reasonable sum to replenish these. The Insured however would have to demonstrate that these could not have been made back up during normal working e.g. if they had ample capacity.