

Supplier Customers Clause

Loss resulting from interruption of or interference with The Business directly or indirectly arising from damage to property at the situations specified in the Schedule shall be deemed to be loss resulting from damage to property used by The Insured at The Premises.

It is understood and agreed that :

- a) A supplier's premises is any premises from which The Insured obtains supplies of materials, components, goods or services and the premises of processors and the premises of manufacturers of plant and equipment from The Insured together with any manufacturer supplying The Insured's suppliers or manufactures or processors with components or materials.
- b) That the provision in the Section related to admission of liability or payment for loss by The Insurers or other insurers insuring the property at The Premises against damage shall not apply in respect of this extension.
